	DETENTION ORDER 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i) PAGE 1	15.13 Rev. 1/91

- (2) Defendant has a history of failure to cooperate and comply with the terms of his supervised release. This reflects either an unwillingness or an inability of defendant to comply with terms of supervision and court orders.
 - (3) Defendant was on supervised release whenever the alleged offenses occurred.
 - (4) Defendant has an extensive criminal background history.
- (5) There appear to be no conditions or combination of conditions other than detention that will reasonably address the risk of nonappearance as required, and the risk of danger to the community.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 12th day of March, 2007.
